Maureen- thanks for the clarification. I've attached a few edits for the Executive Summary in track changes. (Sorry. I didn't realize you were waiting on me for anything!)

One of my edits pertains to the contractors suggestion in bullet 4. I have added the Kroese et al citation, but unfortunately, in the process I appear to have broken the HERO links. Maybe the contractor can figure this out.

My other responses are below in red.

Thanks!

-Kathleen

Thanks Maureen, I will look into the comments from the contractor. I think they are mistaken on the last two points, but I will confirm and write back. For now I would recommend they keep the text as is.

Also, can someone tell me what the "EC" is referring to in the second bullet?

Importance: High

Hi folks,

Here is the staging site for the BaP chemical landing page. Included with the link I have left some comments from my contractors (and my responses). Let me know if you have any questions. Cheers, Maureen
